USING AUTHENTIC SONGS TO ENHANCE LANGUAGE-LEARNING: A HANDS-ON WORKSHOP (P)

Xenia Tsolaki Metaxa, PhD in Education, Adjunct Professor at Saint Louis University (USA)*
Director of Studies at XTMPI- XENIA TSOLAKI METAXA PRIVATE INSTITUTE

Do you make time for music in your classrooms? If so, how do you ensure that fun-time is learning-time? Join us for a pleasant workshop and experience songs as teaching tools which enhance language acquisition. Come, sing-along and seek your answers with an open mind!

11.00 – 11.50

THE POWER OF PLAY (P)

Natassa Manitsa, Head of the ELT Consultants Department*
Chief Editor of the Teacher's Corner, EXPRESS PUBLISHING

Play allows learners to explore and practice new language in an enjoyable and motivating way. Games create a context for meaningful communication, and provide the opportunity for comprehensible input and output. We will discuss how games can lead to acquisition and look at different games using all the language skills - and have some fun along the way.

12.00 – 12.30

Coffee Break sponsored by Express Publishing

12.30 – 12.55

TURNING RELUCTANT LEARNERS INTO ENTHUSIASTIC ONES (C)

Natassa Manitsa, Head of the ELT Consultants Department*
Chief Editor of the Teacher's Corner, EXPRESS PUBLISHING

During this presentation, we will demonstrate some of the possibilities that the digital versions of course material and the corresponding online platforms can provide for schools, students and teachers. We will demonstrate some of the basic functions and look at how they can make language learning flexible and organised for students at all levels, from beginners onwards.
