Programme

Saturday 9 April - Vergina

10.00 – 10.50 Professional Presentation	TEACHING OUT OF THE BOX? THERE'S NO BOX! Maria Davou, Teacher, Teacher Trainer, GLOSSOMATHEIA LAB This talk is about two language education programs developed in a language school in Athens, incorporating inquiry-based learning principles, adding age and level specific features. The first program is Inquiring Minds , addressing ages 6-12, CEFR levels pre-A1- B2. IM is based on Big Questions, world exploration, Science and Art. The principles of IM are related to Cognitive Development and the Montessori approach. The second program is Deeper Learning , addressing ages 12+ and CEFR levels B2+. The talk will focus on the development of both IM and DL , their theoretical background, principles and values, their reception from the stakeholders and application results using assessment data, both from the classroom and high-stakes exams.
11.00 – 11.25	UNPACKING THE "ALCE™ C1-C2": NEW FORMAT AND SCORING Nick Frangos, Academic Coordinator, HELLENIC AMERICAN UNION Are you preparing students for the new ALCE™ C1-C2 ? In this presentation you can explore the format and scoring scheme of the ALCE™ C1-C2 with examples taken from the HAU publications brand new Practice Tests ALCE™, C1-C2 Level . Help your students practice their test taking skills before they take the official examination. A sample test of the ALCE™ C1-C2 will also be distributed along with the presentation material!
11.30 – 11.55	THE UNIQUENESS OF YOUNG LANGUAGE LEARNERS Phaedra Tsalababouni, English Teacher, Trainer, THE STUDY ROOMS It is common knowledge these days that children are fantastic language learners. We also know that being able to speak another language has a lot of cognitive benefits. But young children are also unique language learners who require a different approach than older children or adults. This uniqueness, while it has its own challenges, is what makes teaching language to young children so rewarding. Let's discuss how Moomin Language School can support young children to fulfill their potential as language learners in a fun, playful way...
