In our presentation we will be exploring the world of EdYOUfest, an educational festival that combines learning and fun, networking and building relationships with other teachers all over the world, while offering great opportunities for professional development all year round. Our main focus will be on our summer conference that will be held 28th-31st August, in Athens College, Athens, under the auspices of the Region of Attica. Join us to learn all about the workshops, keynote speeches but also our social and cultural events (trips, gala night, certificates ceremony) that make the community of EdYOUfest unique.
15.00 – 15.50 Professional Presentation	A HOLISTIC APPROACH TO TEACHING YOUNG LEARNERS Tracy Huntingford, Editorial Manager, BURLINGTON BOOKS The importance of stories, songs, games and projects in junior classes.
16.00 – 16.50 Professional Presentation	ARE YOU INTELLIGENT? DO YOU CONSIDER YOURSELF A STUDENT, TEACHER, OR EDUCATOR? David Squirrel, Business Development Manager, E-PLANET EDUCATIONAL SERVICES LTD All too often we focus on the tree and forget about the journey we take to reach it. Life can be like that, but should the sole purpose of learning English be simply passing exams? By taking into consideration not only our students learning styles and intelligences, but also our own, we can create a more enjoyable and effective English language environment.
