PROGRAMME

International Publishers Exhibition

Dear Foreign Language Professional,

For the 35th time in Greece the IP Exhibitions are hosting a unique event for the FLT community in Thessaloniki, giving you the chance to inspect the most innovative products and select the best for your students.

One day to follow the latest international trends on technology in class, active learning, gamification, examinations, projects and many others.

We are proud to have Gavin Dudeney, an expert in using Technology in class, presenting during the exhibition. He will also lead a workshop at the end of the day on how to use Mobile Devices to increase the effectiveness of your teaching with your computer literate students. Another highlight is the introduction of the Russian language presented by speakers from Russian Word and the University of St. Petersburg.

All prominent publishers, examination boards and teacher training centers will welcome you and help you achieve even greater results with coursebooks, supplementary material, digital products for teaching and trainings.

Over the years the Foreign Language School Owners' Discussion Group has become a popular meeting place for a large number of school owners. On Sunday morning you will have once again the opportunity to discuss a variety of issues with your colleagues and attend the presentation of John Protopapadakis on how to increase your clients/parents/students' loyalty.

Spread the word by inviting friends and colleagues to the exhibition at The MET Hotel, on the 11th March.

Looking forward to welcoming you to the 35th Thessaloniki International Publishers Exhibition,

Philip Dietschi

WIN BY SHARING YOUR EXPERIENCE

If you have an apple and I have an apple and we exchange these apples then you and I will still each have one apple. But if you have an idea and I have an idea and we exchange these ideas, then each of us will have two ideas.

George Bernard Shaw

School owners will have the chance to express their opinion on problems/difficulties and proposals/opportunities on the following subjects:

Projects - in which do we participate, how do we include them, why
Communication with parents - when and why, how, what problems have we dealt with

Homework - what is the correct amount, what if students don't do it, should parents help out

TEACHING GRAMMAR WITHOUT TEACHING GRAMMAR

In this 3-hour hands-on workshop, we will explore ways of subtly integrating grammar tasks in all skills. Grammar is present everywhere and there is no language without it. However, teaching Grammar communicatively is often a riddle for teachers. How can we design grammar tasks that are creative and meaningful? How can we teach grammar "in disguise"? The workshop will include examples from soft-CLIL and values-based approaches too.

Mary Davou is a teacher, teacher trainer and researcher. She has an MA in TESOL, St Michael's College, Vermont, US and studied for a PhD in Applied Linguistics at Lancaster University, UK. She is now completing her Doctorate degree in Athens. Maria strongly believes that teachers need to re-consider their role in education and learn a lot from their learners. She promotes educational values that have to do with freedom of the individual, student-centered methodologies, respect for the rights of children and the student's voice in the classroom and the community, multicultural and multilingual environments. Maria works against fascism, racism, nationalism, fanaticism, violence and hate speech.

LEARNING IN HAND - MOBILE DEVICES: THE TOOLS STUDENTS LOVE TO USE

In this highly-practical workshop we will look at what mobile and handheld learning really are, and how they can easily be implemented in any classroom. We start by defining mobile learning and considering the pros and cons of a mobile approach in education, before moving on to consider how mobile devices might be successfully integrated into our daily teaching in a principled way. This active workshop features a number of practical teaching ideas as well as tools and apps which are immediately applicable in any context, with any level of learner.

Gavin Dudeney

Gavin is Director of Technology for The Consultants-E - working in online training and consultancy in EdTech - and also module leader (MATALL) on the NILE / University of Chichester MAPDLE (MA in Professional Development for Language Education). A former Honorary Secretary and Chair of ElCom at IATEFL (the International Association of Teachers of English as a Foreign Language), he now serves on the International House Trust Board. A regular keynote speaker at conferences worldwide, Gavin is author of (among others) The Internet & The Language Classroom, How To Teach English with Technology, Digital Literacies and Going Mobile.

DON'T GET STUCK ON THE NITTY GRITTY OF GRAMMAR

Sylvia Kar, Teacher, Author, Teacher Trainer, SYLVIA KAR PUBLICATIONS
Teaching communicatively is the clue. How many times have students said to you, "I don't know why it's correct but it SOUNDS RIGHT!" Don't get stuck on the nitty gritty of Grammar. Teach it through communication; it helps all skills.
